Scott-

We have not received from you a Notice of Deposition detailing the 30(b)(6) topics, as required by the Federal Rules. Nonetheless, Facebook has identified a witness based on the "general topics" you provided, and that person is available on February 8, 11 or 15. Please let me know which of these dates work for you.

We would appreciate your providing us with reasonable notice of the topics for which Facebook should be prepared.

Theresa,

We disagree that you cannot identify the appropriate witnesses based on the topics I have provided below. It appears you are refusing to make your witnesses available, and we will advise the Court accordingly.

Scott-

I can't give you dates without first being able to identify the specific topics. Facebook has a number of employees and, depending on the topics, one person may be more appropriate than another. You'll need to serve a notice with topics, so if you can just provide those to me, I can get you dates.

Theresa,

I cannot be any more specific at this time, other than what I have indicated. When are your witnesses available?

Scott-

Please provide me more specific information regarding the 30(b)(6) topics so that Facebook can determine the most appropriate witness(es).

Subject: Request for deposition dates and times

Theresa,

Defendant ConnectU seeks to notice a Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of Facebook. Please provide us with dates and times you and Facebook are available. The general topics of inquiry will be the operation of Facebook's servers, and its internet connections from the time its website launched to the present. Please get back to me at your earliest opportunity.

Thank you
